

Appointment of Austen Reid to lead RITTERWALD in the UK

June 15, 2020

RITTERWALD, the Pan European housing and real estate consultancy, is pleased to announce the appointment of Austen Reid as Director, to lead the company in the UK.

Austen Reid brings over 30 years' experience in social and affordable housing much of it at executive level in several large housing associations, including Clarion Housing Group where he was Executive Director of Development. Austen has also been a Director in Savills Housing Consultancy. Austen has led strategic projects in the areas of asset management, property management, development, governance, and mergers, also core competencies of RITTERWALD.

Dr. Mathias Hain, RITTERWALD's Managing Director commented "Austen's track record in the UK social housing sector speaks for itself and we are delighted he has joined us to strengthen our support to UK clients in the areas of operational efficiency, sustainable housing finance and business strategy".

RITTERWALD works with the social and affordable housing industry across Europe that faces similar challenges regarding delivering customer services digitally, enabling growth and the search for sustainable business models, including attracting ESG investors.
